

INDIGNATION RIFE OVER DOG SHOOTING

Mrs. H. R. Burr, Media, Says Children Were Near Animal When It Was Killed

HITS STATE OFFICERS

Action of a State officer, who is said to have fired a charge of buckshot into the pet dog of the children of Professor Harvey R. Burr of Media, while the children were playing near the animal, has aroused indignation. The dog was killed as the result of quarantine orders.

Mrs. Burr said today Beauty, a large eight-year-old collie, was romping in the yard of her home last Wednesday with four of her children.

"We had Beauty since he was a little pup and he was a great favorite," Mrs. Burr said. "We kept him in the yard as a protection for the youngsters while they were playing."

"The children were only a few feet from Beauty when the State deputies came along in their automobile. One of them raised a shotgun and fired toward the dog. The load was directed directly toward the house, and it had missed the dog it would have killed the children."

"The dog ran to the door and fell over it when he was shot. The shot was so close that it literally tore it to pieces. The dog was not out on the road, but inside the yard, when the shot was fired."

Mrs. Burr said today she will complain to the State Bureau of Animal Industry which has charge of the enforcement of the campaign against unbranded dogs.

Fifteen Airedales and beagle hounds were shot yesterday as a precautionary measure on the farm of Paul W. Sharpley, a wealthy resident of Media. The animals had been bitten by another beagle hound owned by Mr. Sharpley at the University of Pennsylvania laboratories. It was infected with rabies. As soon as this was determined, Mr. Sharpley had all the dogs in his kennels shot. They were valued at $1000.

The quarantine against unbranded dogs in Delaware County has been extended for ninety days.

PHARMACISTS CELEBRATE

College Observing "Centennial Day." Braided Dinner Tonight

Centennial Day exercises of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy will be conducted in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford, beginning this morning. Rear Admiral Braided will preside, and an address of welcome will be made by Mayor Moore.

Dr. William H. Carpenter, provost of Columbia University, will speak on the "Significance of Education." Dr. J. Spitz Cohen will discuss "The Relation of Pharmacy to Medicine," and Charles H. La Wall, dean of the college, will tell about "The Future of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science."

The biggest feature of the centennial celebration comes tonight at the dinner and reception to be tendered to Admiral Braided at the Bellevue-Stratford. One of the speakers will be the oldest alumnus of the school, Samuel Gerhard. Over a thousand alumni are expected to be present.

SIX HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Machine Upsets to Avoid Collision in Northwest

Six persons, including two small children, were injured last night when an automobile in which they were riding overturned when it struck a telephone pole in an effort to avoid a collision at Hunting Park and Ridge avenues. All were taken to the Samaritan Hospital, where they were treated for injuries of the head and body.

They are: Edward Higgins, twenty-four years, 250 East Evergreen avenue; Miss Catherine McLaughlin, twenty-four years, a domestic, employed by W. W. Watson, Chestnut Hill; Michael Daley, twenty-six years, 2911 Kuffner street; his wife, Mary, twenty-four years, and their two children, Joseph, aged two years, and Thomas, aged seven months.

Higgins, a chauffeur, was operating the car, which belonged to his employer, W. W. Watson, of Mermaid lane and Credef street.

GAS HEARING TONIGHT

Second Session to Be Held in Council Chamber

The second public hearing on the gas question will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Council's finance room, on the fourth floor of City Hall.

As at the previous meeting, the entire battery of elevators in the northeast and northwest corners of City Hall will be in operation for the accommodation of citizens. The northeast and northwest corners of City Hall will remain open, together with the main entrances and all the first-floor corridors.

M. R. Malthe, chairman of the Gas Commission authorized by Council and Montgomery yesterday that he would be present at tonight's meeting to answer all questions and give any information bearing on the report and recommendations of the commission.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

The Municipal Band will play tonight at Hancock and Howard streets.

EMILY GILPIN HOPKINSON Descendant of flag designer serving on jury in Criminal Court No. 1

MAN, 76, GETS ONE YEAR FOR ATTACKING WOMAN

Had Previously Served Four Years for Murder

Abraham J. Decker, G. A. R. veteran, seventy-six years old, charged with attacking Mrs. Catharine Mallon, 3500 Frankford avenue, was sentenced to one year in the County Prison today by Judge McMichael in the County Court.

The man wanted to smoke, and without leaving the box. After Decker had been convicted it was learned he had previously served four years for murder. In January, 1910, he shot and killed William Miller, seventeen years old, of Second and McKean streets.

Decker boarded at the home of Mrs. Mallon. While she was alone in the house recently, she said, the prisoner seized her and treated her brutally. The woman fought to defend herself and in the struggle both she and Decker rolled downstairs.

PATROLMAN SUSPENDED

Is Charged With Theft of Gallon Jug of Whisky

Another patrolman was suspended by Acting Superintendent Tempst this morning for being mixed up in another kind of a whisky scandal. The officer is Matthew Cleary, a Negro, of the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station, who lives on Ritten street near Twenty-first. He is charged with larceny of a hand bag and a gallon jug of whisky from Edward Shedy's traveling salesman of 826 North Eighth street, after Shedy had invited him into his house for a drink.

According to Shedy's story, he met Cleary, who has been doing quarantining work in the Tenderloin district, near his home Sunday. He invited Cleary to his home for a drink. He put a gallon jug of whisky on the table in the parlor and went to the rear of the house for water. When he returned, he says he saw his erstwhile guest running up the street with the jug in one hand and an alligator skin bag in the other.

END LONG TRIP ON SKATES

Philadelphians Claim Record After Journey to Chicago and Back

Another championship was added to Philadelphia's list and two boys had finished a 2200-mile trip on roller skates when John McHale, 3214 Powell avenue, and Eddie Kelly, 1538 Fairmount avenue, returned to Independence Square this morning.

Kelly and McHale, professional roller skaters, were officially made world's champions long-distance roller skaters by the National League of Roller Skaters of the United States of America when they had completed the trip from Philadelphia to Chicago and return, traversing the entire distance on their skates.

The skaters took twenty-three days to go out and lost six pounds en route. They left Philadelphia, less than twenty-one days were required, and each man only lost two pounds.

They left Independence Hall on April 18 and arrived in Chicago May 19. Returning, they left Chicago May 25 and got in here this morning.

WOMAN HEADS GRAND JURY

Mrs. Charlotte T. Thomas, Conshohocken, Montgomery Co. Foreman

Mrs. Charlotte T. Thomas, wife of Dr. J. Quincy Thomas of Conshohocken, was chosen forewoman of the Grand Jury in Montgomery County Court yesterday. There are two other women on the jury: Ruth Fish, of Whitemarsh, and Ruth T. Binckley, of Jenkintown.

An octogenarian is a juror at this term of court. She is Miss Annie Hancock, eighty-four years old, of Wyn-cote. She is a successful gardener and a member of the Nineteenth Century Club and the New Century Guild.

Bank May Open Monday

The South Broad Street Trust Co. will probably reopen next Monday. This opinion was expressed today by State bank examiners.

State Banking Commissioner Fisher recently extended the time for presentation of a plan of reorganization by the bank officials until June 20. The bank was closed by his order two weeks ago, due to lack of funds with which to meet withdrawals.

NATION HONORS ANCESTOR WHILE GIRL SERVES AS JUROR

Emily Gilpin Hopkinson, Whose Great-Great-Grandfather Designed Continental Flag, Urges Jurymen to Sit in All Cases

While a nation is honoring the flag that her great-great-grandfather designed under orders of the Continental Congress, Miss Emily Gilpin Hopkinson, of the Gladstone Apartments, Eleventh and Pine streets, is sitting in Criminal Court No. 1 as a member of a jury panel waiting call to serve.

Miss Hopkinson, an earnest, attractive woman of about twenty-eight, has been on jury service for a week, and during that time has sat in several cases.

Miss Hopkinson was little inclined to talk about her experiences as a juror, although she admitted being much interested in the work, which is not unrelated to the sociological interests to which she is devoting her life. During the war Miss Hopkinson was active in war work, and since then has devoted all her time to charitable and social projects.

The money she will earn on jury duty—about $45—will be devoted to a certain charity case which has held her interest for some time.

Rooms Need Ventilation "I think women should be willing to serve on the jury when they have the vote," said Miss Hopkinson, "and they should be willing to sit on all cases. I have noted some improvements that could be made and I hope that the addition of women to the jury may bring them about."

"The thing that I notice in particular is the lack of ventilation in the jury rooms. I was locked up for four hours in one of the rooms and there was absolutely no ventilation of any kind. The men wanted to smoke, and although I believe in men smoking and like to see them do so, it made it rather hard to be cooped up all that time in a room full of smoke."

"I did notice a small window opening into a corridor and insisted that it be opened. That helped a little, but not much. The other jury room was better, as there was a window leading into an alleyway."

"I do not think people should worry about the sentences being made to the jury. For my own part, I believe that in the case of adult prisoners not too much mercy should be shown. Of course, in the case of the youths of either sex their age should be taken into consideration."

Jury Work Instructive "I have found the work interesting and highly instructive. I am sure that it will be a big help to me in my sociological work. No, I was never in a courtroom until I was first called to serve on the jury."

"Of course there is something to be said about the type of women that serves on the jury. I think that some care might be taken in selecting them. On one of the juries with which I served was a woman who appeared to be young and inexperienced and she surely was obstinate."

"She showed her desire for mercy to influence her better judgment. I think, and the result was that her sentimentality caused the jury to be discharged when it stood eleven to one for conviction, with the resulting cost to the city."

Although Miss Hopkinson was never in a courtroom before she began jury service, she shows a remarkable knowledge of affairs legal. Attaches of the

STATE BOOMS TO BE GIVEN FIRST TESTS

Republican Powwow Saturday to Give Indication of State Line-Up

INDORSEMENT FOR KNOX

A large group of influential women will attend the big powwow of the Republican State Committee here Saturday, when lines will be laid for the governorship and one of the two United States senatorships.

Senator Knox, who rarely attends State Committee meetings, will be present at this important conference, which will begin in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel at 11 A. M.

Senator Penrose, Governor Sprout, Lieutenant Governor Biddleman and State Senator Crow, chairman of the State Committee, will be among the outstanding figures at the meeting. The other women who will attend include Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, chairman of the Republican Women's Committee of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Beattie Dobson Altman, county chairman.

Statemaking to Start County leaders from all sections of the State will sit in at the meeting. Gu-tierrez and boomlets have pushed up above the soil in several quarters with the needle of decision apparently wavering around three points.

The recent visit President Harding made to the Valley Forge home of Senator Knox has a direct bearing on the situation in Pennsylvania. It is believed the White House preference will result in a State Committee endorsement for the re-election of Senator Knox.

State Senator Crow has been an avowed candidate for the junior United States senatorship which will be voted on next year. It is an open secret that Senator Knox wishes to continue among the elder statesmen in Washington.

These clashing ambitions undoubtedly will affect the statemaking for the State

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. JEWELERS SILVERSMITHS STATIONERS GRADUATION GIFTS Pendant, Pocket and Wrist Watches Jeweled Bar Pins and Scarf Pins

GLASS Pressed Lens A translucent glass which gathers within its crystalline heart the rays of light and diffuses them throughout the interior of the rooms in a brilliant radiance. For windows and transoms of buildings of every description. Beautiful, utilitarian, moderately priced. Send for a Free Sample HIRES TURNER GLASS COMPANY Founded 1864 30th and Walnut PHILADELPHIA

ONCE Advertising gets its stride, it becomes your speediest and most active sales help THE HOLMES PRESS, Printers 1315-20 Cherry Street Philadelphia

Men who have made their mark in the world aren't satisfied with ordinary clothes. They must have something individual—something different. They want clothes that set them off from the commonplace. Such men come to this Store where quality, style, superior woollens and superb workmanship are the determining factors in the choosing of their clothes. Spring and Summer Suits are $30 and upward. The values at $45 and $50 are especially attractive. JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

FATHER COLLAPSES AT HERO'S CASKET

John B. Dalton Overcome at Paoli Station on Learning Son's Body Had Arrived

MANY AT FUNERAL TODAY

A soldier stood at attention beside a flag-draped casket in the Paoli railroad station last Saturday as John B. Dalton, father of three service men, approached and asked the name of the hero.

Sergeant J. Le Roy Dalton, the youngest son, collapsed over the casket of his son, who was killed on the Marne, August 18, 1918. A military funeral was held today for the hero.

Mr. Dalton last Friday received a telegram from New York to the effect his son's body had reached there and that it was being forwarded to Paoli, where a military funeral would be held.

On Saturday the grieving father went to the Paoli Postoffice for his mail and received a card from Washington which contained the same information as the telegram.

NRT FINE FRAMING PAINTINGS CLEANED AND RESTORED THE ROSENBACK GALLERIES 1320 Walnut Street

Blue Week at Perry's Showing Blue Serge Suits in a wide Variety of Beautiful Patterns $28 $33 $38 $42 $48 Plain Blue Serges—plenty of them! In addition, beautiful herringbone weaves—narrow, medium and broad; self stripes, silk stripes, fine soft twills; Blue Serges twilled like the old English Clay Serges—single and double breasted models; some skeleton lined with silk, some with mohair, some half lined, some plainly lined; seam edges piped with silk—beautifully finished with fine workmanship. We've put Special Value Prices on Every Blue Suit to make the Showing doubly attractive! $28 $33 $38 $42 $48 PERRY & CO. Sixteenth and Chestnut Sts.

Rummage SALE Women's Summer Footwear Tomorrow and Wednesday The greatest bargains ever offered to the women of Philadelphia! Thousands of pairs of smartest oxfords, strap pumps and slippers, in the fashionable leathers & styles. Practically all Sizes in the Sale! $7.50, $9.50 to $12.50 Values $1.00 Three Days $2.00 Days $3.00 Only ROYAL BOOT SHOP FOR WOMEN 1208 Chestnut St.

Household Help You will get a reliable child's nurse, maid, cook, etc.—one you can trust with the children, through an ad in THE LEDGER MORNING AND EVENING Walnut 3000—Main 1601

MacDonald & Campbell Tropical Weight Worsted Suits $25 to $45 Specially selected, lightest weight worsted fabrics in a wide variety of fine Blues, Gray, Browns, Mixtures and Stripes. Wonderfully comfortable in hot weather. Perfect style and longest service. Men's Hats, Clothing, Haberdashery Motor Wear 1334-1336 Chestnut Street

Litigation arises from improperly drawn Wills YOUR WILL should be drawn up by an attorney—and a Trust Company should be appointed as Executor and Trustee. Our officers will gladly explain details. No obligations, and confidential. WEST END TRUST COMPANY BROAD STREET AT SOUTH PENN SQUARE